

Knights Templar Will Meet Here

The Knights Templar of Maryland will meet in Baltimore February 26 for the one hundred and seventy-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Maryland Commandery No. 1.

A special service will be held that evening at the Masonic Temple, 225 North Charles street. The next night the anniversary conclave will be held at the temple.

A banquet will be held the following night, including entertainment and a dance at the Lord Baltimore Hotel.

Indian Dances

Members of the Red Shield Boys Club will present a program of Indian dances performed by tribes that were prevalent when Templary in Maryland was in its infancy.

Wilber M. Brucker, grand master of the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar of the United States, will preside. He will be accompanied by John L. Crofts, deputy grand master.

Also in attendance will be G. Wilbur Bell, grand generalissimo of the Grand Encampment, and John B. Cottrell, department commander of the North Atlantic Department of the Grand Encampment.

The principal address at the anniversary conclave will be delivered by Sir Knight Ball whose topic will be "Templary Yesterday and Today."
